THE MANIFESTO OF MARIA STEFANELLI

We leave the fashions and trends, intellectual death.
We Banned the illusions of the virtual.

We fight all that dulls the memory and consciousness.
We have to look back to not miss today.
Being masters of our life is not just a right.
We escape the apathy.

Genius, insight, foresight is not madness.

They have drunk our minds. Buy is not a command.
Yesterday, today, tomorrow, unbreakable union.

The artist, real mirror.

Memory, the only salvation.

Nostalgia for lost time.

Opera is synonymous with feeling.

Peace and cooperation between peoples, we all have the same goal: live.
That's what we tell. Impress the human consciousness ..
We are the voice of the world.

Science as a synonym for confirmation.

Timing, a good defense.

We use computers to enrich our lives. It is not a substitute for socialization.
Speed, rough time thief, escapes the eye.
Zibaldone to collect memories and to avoid human extinction.
